

Gulftainer

Gulftainer Company Limited, a private UAE Ports and third-party Logistics Company, was established in 1976 and for 36 years has delivered world class performance to its customers.

UAE operations now include the 'best in class' (SCATA awards 5 years in succession) Khorfakkan Container Terminal (KCT) and Sharjah Container Terminal (SCT), as well as port operations and logistics in Ruwais, where it manages the facility on behalf of the international plastics company, Borouge.

The company's international presence spans over 5 continents and includes: the Middle East; Africa; Europe; Africa; Asia and the Americas; with the most recent projects in Iraq, Russia and Brazil beginning to come on stream in early 2012 with several potential new ventures currently being assessed.
